

TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD . . . xxvii

INTRODUCTION . . . xxix

SECTION ONE AN HISTORIC OPPORTUNITY

CHAPTER 1—2004—WHAT WERE THEY THINKING? . . . 3

CHAPTER 2—AN HISTORIC OPPORTUNITY FOR POLITICAL REALIGNMENT . . . 7

Emerging from Our Defensive Crouch * The Two Components of Political Realignment * When You Have Them on the Run, That's the Time to Chase Them * The 2006 Victory—Building the Electoral Foundation for Realignment * Winning Everywhere * Progress with Every Demographic Group * Overcoming Structural Challenges * State Races * The Potential for Realignment * Our Plan of Attack

*CHAPTER 3—GETTING UP OFF THE FLOOR—THE BATTLE TO STOP
THE PRIVATIZATION OF SOCIAL SECURITY . . . 14*

The Defining Battle * Job #1—Develop a Unified Message * The 1993 Parallel * Three Strategic Message Objectives * Job #2—Prevent Democratic Free Lancing * Job #3—Take on the Presidential Road-Show * Job #4—Naming the Battle * Job #5—Taking Them on At Home * The Turning Point

SECTION TWO ADDRESSING THEIR SELF INTEREST

CHAPTER 4—THE SIX CATEGORIES OF SELF INTEREST . . . 29

Physical Needs * Control Over Your Life * The Need for Structure * Community, Human Interaction and Affirmation * Intellectual Stimulation * Meaning and Purpose and Identity

CHAPTER 5—PHYSICAL NEEDS . . . 34

Economic Self Interest * Physical Security and Safety * Health Security

CHAPTER 6—CONTROL OVER YOUR LIFE . . . 38

CHAPTER 7—THE NEED FOR STRUCTURE . . . 40

CHAPTER 8—COMMUNITY, HUMAN INTERACTION AND AFFIRMATION . . . 44

CHAPTER 9—INTELLECTUAL STIMULATION . . . 46

CHAPTER 10—MEANING, PURPOSE AND IDENTITY . . . 47

CHAPTER 11—FROM GARBAGE CANS TO THE MEANING OF LIFE . . . 50

SECTION THREE TARGETS FOR COMMUNICATION

CHAPTER 12—WHOM DO WE HAVE TO MOVE IN ORDER TO CONVERT THIS HISTORIC OPPORTUNITY INTO PROGRESSIVE REALIGNMENT? . . . 55

Who Do We Talk To—how Do We Change Their Behavior? * The Self Interest Spectrum

CHAPTER 13—CATEGORIES OF MESSAGE TARGETS . . . 60

Elections—Persuadables and Mobilizables * Issue Campaigns—The Decision Makers * Additional Progressive Message Targets * Activists * Contributors * Opinion Molders * Leaders * Organized Constituencies * The Press

CHAPTER 14—ACTIVISTS . . . 63

Progressive Activists * Wherewithal and Will * Invest in Training * Take Them to 95th Street * Get 'Em While They're Young * It Just Didn't Square * April 1968 * The Duke Vigil * Training a New Generation of Progressive Organizers * Swing Constituency Activists * We need to be Agitators * The Coalition Rule * Making Allies Feel Comfortable * Conservative Activists * Deactivate Them

CHAPTER 15—CONTRIBUTORS . . . 77

No Way to Run a Political System * To Get Public Financing of Elections, We Need Candidates Willing to Raise Money * Make It Personal * Inspire Them

CHAPTER 16—OPINION MOLDERS . . . 82

Connectors * Mavens * Salesmen * The Function of Connectors, Mavens and Salesmen * What Causes Tipping Points? * A Moment of Hispanic Realignment

CHAPTER 17—LEADERS . . . 98

Progressive Leaders * Training and Recruiting Leaders * Leaders Who Are—or Could Be—Progressive Allies * Asking Followers to Enlist Leaders as Progressive Allies * Getting Leaders and Followers to Reinforce Each Other * The Cockroach Theory of Lobbying * Leaders of the Opposition * Hang One in the Public Square

CHAPTER 18—CONSTITUENCY GROUPS . . . 112

Blue Demographics * Progressive Constituencies * The Secret of How to Turn White, Male Gun Owners into Democrats (Hint, It's a Five-Letter Word) * Swing Constituencies—Allies * Other Swing Constituencies * Opposition Constituencies

CHAPTER 19—EARNED MEDIA—THE PRESS . . . 126

Self Interests of the Media * What Makes Something Newsworthy? * Which Media Influences the Voters? * Uses of Radio * Small Town and Rural Media * Creating the Echo Chamber * Using Base Media to Affect the Broader Political Dialogue * The War Room

SECTION FOUR THE PRINCIPLES OF POLITICAL COMMUNICATION

CHAPTER 20—PERSUADABLE AND MOBILIZABLE VOTERS . . . 147

Never the Same People * The Subject of the Message

CHAPTER 21—THE NINE QUALITIES . . . 150

Is the Candidate on My Side? * Does the Candidate Have Strongly Held Values? * Is the Candidate a Strong, Effective Leader? * Is the Candidate Self-Confident? * Does the Candidate Respect Me? * Do the Voters Like or Make an Emotional Connection with the Candidate? * Does the Candidate Have Integrity? * Does the Candidate Have Vision? * Does the Candidate Inspire Me? * The Nine Qualities—Political Movements and Parties

CHAPTER 22—SIX MOTIVATIONAL MESSAGES FOR GOTV . . . 176

Your Vote Matters—It's Closer than You Think * Inspiration * Fear Resolved Into Anger * It's Us Versus Them * "Let's Get 'Em" * "I Won't Get Off Your Porch Until You Vote"

CHAPTER 23—SYMBOLS . . . 182

Political Communication is About Symbols * Tell Them a Story * The Elements of Great Stories—The Political Narrative * The "Creation Myth" * Bowties, Ice

Cream Cones and Airplanes * Creating “Political Facts” * Symbols that Make You Feel and Visualize

CHAPTER 24—ADDRESSING THE EMOTIONS AND UNCONSCIOUS . . . 189

Hearing the Words But Listening to the Music * Political Communication and the Unconscious * Repeat, Repeat, Repeat * Training Progressive Leaders—The Right Kind of Practice

CHAPTER 25—FRAMING AND NAMING . . . 197

Framing is Key * Naming Sets the Frame * Progressive or Liberal?

CHAPTER 26—TALKING TO NORMAL PEOPLE . . . 201

Political People are Not Normal People * The 4 C’s of Good Political Communication * Clear * Concise * Contrastive * Convincing * Acting Yourself into Belief and Commitment * The Fight’s the Thing * The Line * Intensity Matters * People Want to Make a Commitment * People are Pack Animals

CHAPTER 27—PLANNING A MESSAGE CAMPAIGN . . . 210

Research * The Message Box * Selecting Symbols * The Base Line Poll * Qualitative Research—The Focus Group * The Narrative

CHAPTER 28—BREAKING THROUGH . . . 228

The Plan to Break Through * Be Memorable * Repeat * Making a Message Memorable—The “Stickiness Factor” * More Concrete, the More Memorable * Making a Listener React Emotionally * Surprise * Confusion Leads to Distraction * Message Structure * Repeat, Repeat, Repeat

CHAPTER 29—MESSAGE CONTEXT . . . 235

Context and Message Interpretation * Context and Motivation * Sometimes Context is the Message

CHAPTER 30—CONTROLLING THE DIALOGUE . . . 239

Stay on the Offensive—If You’re on the Defense, You’re Loosing * Smart Use of Negatives * Build Positives First * Use Humor * Use of Third Parties * Using an Attack As an Occasion to Deliver a Negative * Political Jujitsu * Staying on Message—Repeated, Persuasive Contact

CHAPTER 31—THE “INHERENT” CONFLICT BETWEEN PERSUASION AND MOBILIZATION IS A MYTH . . . 247

SECTION FIVE PLANNING CAMPAIGNS

CHAPTER 32—WINNING ELECTIONS: PERSUADING “PERSUADABLES,” MOBILIZING “MOBILIZABLES” . . . 251

The Theory of Campaigns * Finding Persuadables and Mobilizables * Four Sources of Information * Geography * Demography * The Voter File * The Canvass * The Winning Number * The “Run Universe” * Whom to Canvass—Targeting * Prioritizing the Canvass * Prioritizing the “Run Universe” to Get Out the Vote * Targeting Persuadable Voters * The Canvass * Demographics—Polling * Geography * The Voter File * Prioritizing the Persuasion Universe * Prioritizing Money and Time in a Campaign * How Much to Spend on Mobilization and Persuasion

CHAPTER 33—BATTLING FOR THE PROGRESSIVE AGENDA— ISSUE CAMPAIGNS . . . 270

Learning “Rules for Radicals” * Changing the Behavior of Decision Makers * The Self Interest Inventory * The Self Interests of Legislators and Members of Congress

CHAPTER 34—CONDUCTING A LEGISLATIVE ISSUE CAMPAIGN . . . 279

Filling a Low Pressure Zone * What Will it Take to Win? * Targeting—Changers, Squealers, Exemplars * Messaging to Legislators * Methods of Communicating and Legislators * Systematizing “Grass Roots” and “Grass Tops” Contact * Delivering Issue Messages to Voters * Media for Communicating Issue Messages to Voters * Starting Something is Harder than Stopping Something

CHAPTER 35—CAMPAIGNS AIMED AT GOVERNMENT AGENCIES . . . 290

Bureaucratic Self Interests—Don’t Make Waves * Protecting the Budget * Turf

CHAPTER 36—CAMPAIGNS AIMED AT CORPORATIONS . . . 292

The Self-Interests of Corporate Decision Makers * Pesticides and Lysol * Sandwiches at O’Hare Field * Wal-Mart and the Living Wage * Sears and US Steel * Combination Campaigns aimed at Business and Government—“Save the Swordfish...Order the Pasta”

SECTION SIX ORGANIZING FOR VICTORY

CHAPTER 37—ORGANIZATIONS AND THEIR CAPABILITIES . . . 303

Resources * Processes * Values * The Importance of Culture

CHAPTER 38—THE QUALITIES OF GREAT ORGANIZERS . . . 306

Thinking Like and Organizer * Understanding Self-Interest * Assessing the Capability of the Individual to Become Involved * Meaning is the Greatest Motivator * Being an Agitator * One Step at a Time—Take them to 95th Street * Repeated, Persuasive Contact * The Art of the Ask * Listening * Closing the Deal is About Quid Pro Quo * Building Relationships * There is No Such Thing as Apathy * Excellence in Execution * Pride and Teamwork * Focus * You are the Message * A Winning Attitude * A Culture Designed to Produce Winners * Flexibility * No Whining * Nuts and Bolts * Discipline * Year- Round Door-to-Door * That Which is Not Measured is Not Done * Rules About Measurement * Accountability * Positive Reinforcement and Intrinsic Motivation * Inspiration Leads to Self-Motivation * Great Political Organizations Move People Into Action * Have Fun * Turning Positives Into Negatives * Hire for Attitude and Train for Skill * The Role of Progressive Leaders * Believability * Excitement * Building Progressive Institutions

CHAPTER 39—THE IMPORTANCE OF ORGANIZATION—AN EXAMPLE: CAMPAIGN FIELD OPERATIONS . . . 327

Why are Field Operations Critical? * High-Intensity Field Operations in Electoral Campaigns * The Field Plan * Building the Volunteer Organization * Recruiting Volunteers * What do You Ask Potential Volunteers to Do? * Closing the Deal * Structuring the Field Operation * Executing the Plan * Voter Registration * The Voter ID Canvass * The Importance of Door-to-Door * Pre-Election GOTV Canvass * Other Methods of Delivering GOTV Message * Phone Calls * Outdoor and Yard * Targeted GOTV Radio and TV * Street Action * Sound Trucks * GOTV Mail * Institutional GOTV * Election Fairness Operations * Early Voting and Mail Ballots * Preparing for Election Day * Trainings * The 7- Hour Drill * How Many Volunteers Do We Need?

SECTION SEVENTHE BATTLE OVER VALUES-THE RIGHT IS WRONG*CHAPTER 40—TWO CONTRASTING SETS OF VALUES . . . 359

Contrasting Views of the Nature of Right and Wrong * Contrasting Views of Human Nature * Contrasting Views of Reality and History * Contrasting Views of Causation * Contrasting Views of Interdependence * Contrasting Concepts of Competition * Contrasting Concepts of the Common Good * Contrasting Views of the Role of Government * Contrasting Views of Freedom * The Right Wing Counter-Revolution * The Religious Manifestations of Radical-Conservative and Progressive Values

CHAPTER 41—WHAT ARE PROGRESSIVE VALUES? . . . 374

Human success and survival * Empathy * Responsibility * Competency * Equality
 * Democratic Society * Hope * Unity—We’re all in this together * Nonviolent Resolution of Disputes * Fairness and the Rule of Law * Individual Privacy and Minority Rights * Tolerance for Diversity, Innovation and Critical Thought *
 Self-Respect, Mutual Respect * Responsibility to Future Generations * Economic Efficiency and Democracy * The Conditions for Market Capitalism * Sectors Where the Use of Competitive Markets are Inappropriate

CHAPTER 42—THE PROGRESSIVE VIEW OF LABOR, WAGES, INCOME
AND THE CONTROL OF WEALTH . . . 389

Human Beings Aren’t Commodities * Unionization * The Living Wage * The Benefits of Government * Trade * A High-Wage Economy—Bottom-Up not Top-Down Growth—Forget About Trickle-Down Economics * The Economy and the Long Run * We’re All in This Together

SECTION EIGHT
THE PROGRESSIVE VISION FOR THE FUTURE

CHAPTER 43—IT’S A HIGH STAKES GAME . . . 403

Sylvia Lazar * The World is a Dangerous Place

CHAPTER 44—SEVEN MILLION YEARS OF SOCIAL EVOLUTION—DIAMOND’S ANALYSIS . . . 405

From Hunter-Gatherers to Modern Society * Bands * Tribes * Chiefdoms * States
 * The Trend Toward Complexity * Technological Development * Collisions of Societies—The Mechanisms of Survival and Dominance * Five Lessons for the Future

CHAPTER 45—THE CHOICES WE MAKE . . . 422

Easter Island * Why Societies Collapse * Environmental Damage * Climate Change
 * Acts by Hostile Neighbors * Interruption of Trade Relations with Friendly
 Neighbors * Cultural and Political Ability to Adapt * Adaptive Values

CHAPTER 46—CHALLENGES OF THE FUTURE—THE CONTEXT . . . 434

Globalization * Technological Development * Population Impact and Growth

CHAPTER 47—THE CHALLENGES WE FACE:MASSIVE ENVIRONMENTAL DAMAGE . . . 438

Nonrenewable Resources—Especially Energy * Renewable Resources * Fresh Water * Contamination * Alien Species

CHAPTER 48—THE CHALLENGES WE FACE: CLIMATE CHANGE . . . 443

What Gets You Into Trouble * Reversing the Gulf Stream * Katrina on Steroids * Flooding and Draught * The Changing Oceans * Changing Wildlife * Slowing the Flow * Temperature and CO₂ * We Have the Wherewithal, We Need the Will * Fiddling While the Earth Warms * We're All in This Together

CHAPTER 49—THE CHALLENGES WE FACE: ACTS BY HOSTILE NEIGHBORS—THE IMPACT OF INTER-GROUP VIOLENCE AND BREAKDOWN OF SECURITY . . . 453

The Context * The Explosion of Military Technology * Scarcity and Conflict * Rose Colored Glasses * The Failure of Neoconservative Foreign and Military Policy * The Iraqi Civil War * Lessons We Learned from Neocon Rule * The Next Potential Neocon Disaster—Iran * The Problem of Proliferating WMD * Jihadism and American Foreign Policy * Failure to Address the Security Crisis Caused by Third World Poverty * Haiti * Leave Now or Die * Structural Violence * Acephe's Story * The Effects of Structural Violence * Progressive Values and Security * Dangerous Values

CHAPTER 50—THE CHALLENGES WE FACE: INTERRUPTION OF INTERDEPENDENTRELATIONSHIPS—ESPECIALLY THE COLLAPSE OF TRADE RELATIONS . . . 487

Pitcairn and Henderson * Dependence of Developed Economies on Others for Critical Resources that Become Exhausted * Collapse of Financial Markets or Trading Systems * The Trade Deficit and You * Lending in the Shadows * Political Interruption of Trading Relationships * Cuba * The Effects of Globalization on the Distribution of Economic Resources * Ciudad Juarez—The Invisible Hand Is a Fist

CHAPTER 51—THE CHALLENGES WE FACE: THE CULTURAL ANDPOLITICAL ABILITY OF OUR SOCIETY TO RESPOND . . . 496

We Can Decide * Overriding Factors—Special Interests, Short Term Focus, Failure to Adapt * Critical Thinking and Open Societies * It's Always Done in the Name of National Security * Clearing the Gauntlet

*CHAPTER 52—THE PROGRESSIVE VISION—THE KIND OF SOCIETY
WE WANT TO CREATE . . . 501*

The Foundation is Progressive Values * What Kind of Society Do We Reject? * The Future's Possibility * Escape From Economic Necessity—A New World of Creative Work * A Secure Future * A Truly Democratic Society * Personal Freedom to Select and Achieve Goals and Structure Life * Unprecedented Levels of Intellectual Stimulation and Fulfillment * A Society with New Possibilities for Rich, Stimulating, Mutually Respectful Social Relationships * A Society Where Each Person is Empowered to Seek His Own Meanings and Commitments * The Next Great Leap Forward * Describing the Progressive Vision * What Describing the Progressive Vision Does Not Involve * Principles for Communicating Our Vision of the Future * Examples—Speeches that Describe the Progressive Vision of the Future * John Kennedy's Inaugural Address * Lyndon Johnson's Inaugural Address * Franklin Roosevelt's First Inaugural Address * Dr. Martin Luther King's "I Have A Dream Speech" * Barack Obama's Keynote Address to the 2004 Democratic Convention

SECTION NINE
BUILDING A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

CHAPTER 53—STRUCTURAL CHANGE . . . 533

What is Power? * Four Reasons Why a Democratic Society is So Important in the Modern World * Power and Struggle

CHAPTER 54—THE PROGRESSIVE AGENDA AND STRUCTURAL CHANGE . . . 538

The Progressive Agenda and Structural Change * The Battle Over the Distribution of Wealth and Income * Maintaining Strong Pensions * Universal Health Care * Distribution of Quality Educational Opportunity * Economic Development * The Battle To Defend the Public Sector * The Battle to Restrict the Power of Corporations to Damage the Environment * The Battle to Unionize the Workforce * Media Concentration * Electoral Reform * Controlling the Population Explosion * The Battle to Reduce Structural Violence * The Battle to Empower Multinational Organizations * The Battle for Muscular Multilateralism * The Battle to Prevent the Proliferation of WMD * The Battle to Defend Human Rights * Continuing the Fight to End Discrimination * Appointments to the Judiciary * Protecting the Civil Justice System * Prison and Sentencing Reform * The Battle for Progressive Control of Government at All Levels * The Battle for Progressive Control of Government Around the World * Supporting Mass Movements that Empower the Powerless

CONCLUSION—PRIORITIES FOR ACTION . . . 577

END NOTES . . . 595

INDEX . . . 607